

Residential

Bargate,
Grimsby

The proposed scheme provides 13 apartments and acknowledges the surrounding conservation area context whilst maintaining a contemporary architectural vocabulary.

The building sits within the general urban scene of large formal villas – with elevations modeled to provide a strong composition and regulated according to street character, realm and building program.

