

Residential

House 1,
Ingham

The project involved the design and construction of two detached three bed roomed houses situated in the village of Ingham, Lincolnshire.

The design reflects the long, narrow plot configuration exploiting views to the south across open farmland. The houses display a contemporary architectural language whilst respecting the quality and amenity of the surroundings.

